| Presentationtime                 | Title   | Presenter                 | Abstract  | Learner Outcomes  | Financial Disclosures  | Non-financial Disclosures   |
|--------------------------------------|---|---------------------------|---|---|--|---|
| Thursday8:00-9:3010:00-11:30 | Trauma Informed Care andPractices within Speech PathologySettings                   | McFarland, Heather Palmer | Trauma-informed care has become somewhatof a buzz word within many settings - especiallythose involving children and young adults.However, in this session, we will learn aboutthe history of trauma-informed care, serviceapproaches within the field of trauma-informedcare, and ideas for implementation.  | Learners will be able to describe the history oftrauma- informed care.Learners will be able to identify traumaapproaches within care settings.Learners will be able to implement variousideas in order to better serve their clients andthemselves.   | SDSLHA -registration/travelSDSLHA: honoraria           | NWAEA: professional   |
| Thursday12:00-1:00               | Leadership is a Verb: TakingAction to Fill the Gap(keynote)                             | Daughrity, Belinda        | This session will review the importance ofleadership as members of your stateassociation and ASHA. Attendees will learnabout how leadership opportunities can helpthem develop as professionals, while alsosupporting pre-professionals, colleagues, andclients. Attendees will learn how to identifyappropriate leadership opportunities with boththeir state association and ASHA.  | Learners will be able to list at least 2opportunities for volunteer leadership withASHA.Learners will be able to identify stateassociation leadership roles and benefitsLearners will be able to develop a personalleadership development plan.   | CSULB: salarySDSLHA: honorariaWiley Blackwell: royalty | ASHA: ProfessionalNational NSSLHA:Professional                  |
| Thursday4:00-5:00                | The ABCs of DEI: CenteringCultural Competence to EnhanceYour Professional Practices | Daughrity, Belinda        | This session will review the culturalcompetence continuum and prompt attendeesto identify elements of their cultural identity tohelp recognize how cultural differences cancontribute to misunderstandings. Increasedcultural awareness and cultural responsivenesscan enhance professional interactions andreduce conflicts. Attendees will be prompted toengage in active learning to identify potentialchallenges resulting from cultural differences.The session will also address strategies tomanage errors and promote ongoing learningin cultural competence. | Learners will be able to define the culturalcompetence continuum.Learners will be able to describe how culturaldifferences can adversely impact professionalpractices.Learners will be able to identify at least 2strategies for ongoing learning to supportcultural competence.  | CSULB: salarySDSLHA: honorariaWiley Blackwell: royalty | ASHA: ProfessionalNational NSSLHA:Professional                  |
| Thursday1:30-2:302:50-3:50   | The ABCs of DEI: CenteringCultural Competence to EnhanceYour Professional Practices | Moe, Dani                 | Language, learning, and literacy are critical forall yet present challenges for AAC users –especially given the spectrum across analyticand gestalt learners. This session focuses onstrategies (organization, motor planning,vocabulary) embedded in Grid AAC thatfacilitate different learning approaches. We willexplore strategies within Grid giving practicalexamples supporting different AAC learners.  | Participants will be able to identify one maindifference between analytic languageprocessing and gestalt language processing.Participants will be able to identify twostrategies to support literacy that are utilizedwithin Super Core.Participants will be able to describe two ways topersonalize an AAC system to support gestaltlanguage processors who use AAC. | salary   | Talk to Me Technologies:professionalSmartbox, Inc: professional |

| Thursday1:30-2:302:50-3:50   | Language, Learning, and LiteracyStrategies to Support Analytic andGestalt Language ProcessorsUsing Grid AAC | Bothwell, Lindsey     | Language, learning, and literacy are critical forall yet present challenges for AAC users –especially given the spectrum across analyticand gestalt learners. This session focuses onstrategies (organization, motor planning,vocabulary) embedded in Grid AAC thatfacilitate different learning approaches. We willexplore strategies within Grid giving practicalexamples supporting different AAC learners. | Participants will be able to identify one maindifference between analytic languageprocessing and gestalt language processing.Participants will be able to identify twostrategies to support literacy that are utilizedwithin Super Core.Participants will be able to describe two ways topersonalize an AAC system to support gestaltlanguage processors who use AAC.  | Talk to Me Technologies:SalarySDSLHA: registration  | none   |
|--------------------------------------|---|-----------------------|--|--|---|--|
| Thursday1:30-2:302:50-3:51   | Language, Learning, and LiteracyStrategies to Support Analytic andGestalt Language ProcessorsUsing Grid AAC | Gibbons, Chris        | Language, learning, and literacy are critical forall yet present challenges for AAC users –especially given the spectrum across analyticand gestalt learners. This session focuses onstrategies (organization, motor planning,vocabulary) embedded in Grid AAC thatfacilitate different learning approaches. We willexplore strategies within Grid giving practicalexamples supporting different AAC learners. | Participants will be able to identify one maindifference between analytic languageprocessing and gestalt language processing.Participants will be able to identify twostrategies to support literacy that are utilizedwithin Super Core.Participants will be able to describe two ways topersonalize an AAC system to support gestaltlanguage processors who use AAC.  | Smartbox Assistive :salarySDSLHA: registration  | none   |
| Thursday1:30-2:302:50-3:52   | Language, Learning, and LiteracyStrategies to Support Analytic andGestalt Language ProcessorsUsing Grid AAC | Gylling, Melanie      | Language, learning, and literacy are critical forall yet present challenges for AAC users –especially given the spectrum across analyticand gestalt learners. This session focuses onstrategies (organization, motor planning,vocabulary) embedded in Grid AAC thatfacilitate different learning approaches. We willexplore strategies within Grid giving practicalexamples supporting different AAC learners. | Participants will be able to identify one maindifference between analytic languageprocessing and gestalt language processing.Participants will be able to identify twostrategies to support literacy that are utilizedwithin Super Core.Participants will be able to describe two ways topersonalize an AAC system to support gestaltlanguage processors who use AAC.  | SDSLHA: registration  | ASHA/ASHA SIG 12, ISAAC,USAAC: institutional |
| Thursday8:00-9:3010:00-11:30 | Cultural Issues and Practices inCentral Auditory ProcessingDisorders  | Johnson Martin, Marni | central auditory nervous system and therelationships between auditory processing andlanguage, learning, and communication.Assessment, management, and treatment ofauditory processing weaknesses, regardless ofwhether or not a central auditory processing  | Learners will be able to recognize theimportance of considering auditory processingand listening skills in individuals with language,learning, and/or communication concerns.Learners will be able to identify audiological andspeech/language measures to incorporatewhen assessing individuals with auditoryprocessing and listening concerns.Learners will be able to discuss managementand treatment strategies appropriate forindividuals with auditory processingweaknesses. | University of SouthDakota Center forDisabilities: salarySDSLHA:honoraria/registration | ASHA-professional                                |

| Thursday              | Leveraging Children's Literature to   | Schultz, Jennifer | "I found this great book for therapy! Now, what   | Learners will be able to summarize key points   | SDSLHA: Convention  | SDSLHA: professional                       |
|-----------------------|---|-------------------|---|---|---|--|
| 1:30-2:30             | Maximize IEP Goals andClassroom Success   |                   | do I do with it?" SLPs have embraced usingchildren's books in therapy based on researchdemonstrating oral and written languageconnections. While simply "reading the book"is valuable, savvy SLPs maximize literature-based intervention through book-basedactivities and materials that support IEP goalsand academic standards. This seminar willdemonstrate a research-driven tool to identifykey language targets in children's literature andtranslate them into grab-and-go activities forsmall-group, classroom, and carryoverapplications. Learn how to address multiplecommunication targets, reduce planning time,maximize treatment efficacy, and minimizeexpenses by facilitating language skills "by thebook!" | and empirical foundations regarding the use ofliterature-based intervention to facilitate oraland written language.Learners will be able to analyze children'sliterature to identify embedded languagetargets and core communication skills.Learners will be able to create research-supported "grab and go" extension materialssuitable for small group, classroom, andcarryover applications. | expense reimbursementMitchell TechnicalCollege: salaryDynamic Resources, LLC:Royalty                        | ASHA: professional                         |
| Thursday2:50-3:50 | Cultivating Competence: ExploringMultiple Approaches toSupervision of Speech-LanguagePathology Assistants | Schultz, Jennifer | South Dakota rules for SLPA supervision andthe ASHA Scope of Practice for the SLPA outlinesupervision guidelines based on factors such asSLP and SLPA experience, caseloadcharacteristics, and clinical setting. SLPs areresponsible for designing and implementingsupervision plans that maintain the higheststandards of care, but what that looks like maybe different for everyone. In this session,attendees will explore SLPA supervisionscenarios. Participants will hear from SLPsabout what works for them in their specificsituation.   | Learners will be able to determine therequirements for frequency and amount ofsupervision of an SLPA.Learners will be able to develop a supervisionplan based on SLP and SLPA experience,caseload characteristics, and setting.Learners will be able to identify options forscheduling SLP responsibilities and supervisiontasks to maintain the highest standard ofquality care.               | Mitchell TechnicalCollege: salarySDSLHA: registrationNorthern SpeechServices: RoyaltyMedBridge: Royalty | SDSLHA: professionalASHA: professional |
| Thursday2:50-3:50 | Cultivating Competence: ExploringMultiple Approaches toSupervision of Speech-LanguagePathology Assistants | Bult, Laura       | South Dakota rules for SLPA supervision andthe ASHA Scope of Practice for the SLPA outlinesupervision guidelines based on factors such asSLP and SLPA experience, caseloadcharacteristics, and clinical setting. SLPs areresponsible for designing and implementingsupervision plans that maintain the higheststandards of care, but what that looks like maybe different for everyone. In this session,attendees will explore SLPA supervisionscenarios. Participants will hear from SLPsabout what works for them in their specificsituation.   | Learners will be able to determine therequirements for frequency and amount ofsupervision of an SLPA.Learners will be able to develop a supervisionplan based on SLP and SLPA experience,caseload characteristics, and setting.Learners will be able to identify options forscheduling SLP responsibilities and supervisiontasks to maintain the highest standard ofquality care.               | SDSLHA - registration   | none                                       |

| Thursday2:50-3:50              | Cultivating Competence: ExploringMultiple Approaches toSupervision of Speech-LanguagePathology Assistants | Brink, Bobbi    | South Dakota rules for SLPA supervision andthe ASHA Scope of Practice for the SLPA outlinesupervision guidelines based on factors such asSLP and SLPA experience, caseloadcharacteristics, and clinical setting, SLPs areresponsible for designing and implementingsupervision plans that maintain the higheststandards of care, but what that looks like maybe different for everyone. In this session,attendees will explore SLPA supervisionscenarios. Participants will hear from SLPsabout what works for them in their specificsituation. | Learners will be able to determine therequirements for frequency and amount ofsupervision of an SLPA.Learners will be able to develop a supervisionplan based on SLP and SLPA experience,caseload characteristics, and setting.Learners will be able to identify options forscheduling SLP responsibilities and supervisiontasks to maintain the highest standard ofquality care. | SDSLHA: registration  | none               |
|------------------------------------|---|-----------------|---|---|---|--------------------|
| Thursday2:50-3:50              | Cultivating Competence: ExploringMultiple Approaches toSupervision of Speech-LanguagePathology Assistants | Harvey, Rebecca | South Dakota rules for SLPA supervision andthe ASHA Scope of Practice for the SLPA outlinesupervision guidelines based on factors such asSLP and SLPA experience, caseloadcharacteristics, and clinical setting. SLPs areresponsible for designing and implementingsupervision plans that maintain the higheststandards of care, but what that looks like maybe different for everyone. In this session,attendees will explore SLPA supervisionscenarios. Participants will hear from SLPsabout what works for them in their specificsituation. | Learners will be able to determine therequirements for frequency and amount ofsupervision of an SLPA.Learners will be able to develop a supervisionplan based on SLP and SLPA experience,caseload characteristics, and setting.Learners will be able to identify options forscheduling SLP responsibilities and supervisiontasks to maintain the highest standard ofquality care. | Teachwell Solutions:salaryUSD/Mitchell TechnicalCollege: SalarySDSLHA: Registration | ASHA: Professional |
| Thursday4:00-5:00              | Helping Families Access Servicesand Supports: Who We Are andHow We Can Partner Together                       | Miller, Carla   | In this session, participants will discuss thecomplexities facing families with children withdisabilities and learn more about the servicesand support offered by South Dakota ParentConnection. Participants will also discovervaluable resources available to them to assistthem when working with families.  | Learners will be able to describe thecomplexities facing families today.Learners will be able to partner with SouthDakota Parent Connection by referring familiesthey work with for information and help inworking with professionals and connecting toresources.Learners will be able to utilize South DakotaParent Connection resources in their day to daywork with families.  | South Dakota ParentConnection Inc.: salary  | none               |
| Friday8:00-9:3010:00-11:30 | Challenging Behavior and Speech-Language Therapy  | LaRose, Allyssa | Rooted in principles of applied behavioranalysis and social learning theory, thispresentation aims to assist SLPs withunderstanding challenging behavior and feelingmore comfortable and confident withmanaging it. Case studies will be utilized todemonstrate deconstruction of behavior intothe Antecedent, Behavior, Consequence.Strategies to de-escalate, shape, and extinguishbehavior, criteria and guidelines for settingexpectations and rules, and positive andnegative reinforcement vs punishment will bediscussed.                | Learners will be able to apply Antecedent,Behavior, Consequence (ABC) to a current orformer student/patient.Learners will be able to describe 5 correctivestrategies.Learners will be able to list criteria forestablishing expectations and rules to increaseopportunities for student/patient success.  | Boys Town NationalResearch Hospital: SalarySDSLHA: Registration andtravel reimbursement | none               |

| Friday8:00-9:3010:00-11:30 | A Fresh Look at School-BasedStuttering Management         | Williams, Mandy | A fresh approach to the management of schoolage children who stutter will review the currentliterature and best practices for managingstuttering in school age children. Availabletreatment strategies will be overviewed anddemonstrated. The presentation will covermanagement of speech related anxiety,bullying, and fluency strategies. Attendees willhave the opportunity to ask troubleshootingquestions based on cases they have seen in thepublic schools. Case examples provided by thespeaker will also be discussed. | -   | SDSLHA - registration             | SD Board of Examiners forSLP, president - professionalNational StutteringAssociation - Chapter leader -professionalWorld Stuttering Network -professional |
|------------------------------------|---|-----------------|--|---|-----------------------------------|---|
| Friday1:00-2:00                | Hearing Screening: Best Practicesfor an Effective Program | Phelan, Jen     | Both audiologists and speech languagepathologists complete hearing screenings forvarious populations within the community.Hearing screenings are an effective way tomonitor the hearing health of individual. Asuccessful screening program relies on ensuringthe use of best practices and having aneffective protocol. Efficiency is also key and canbe obtained by using tests most suited for thepopulation.   | Learners will be able to develop an effective   | SDSLHA - registration             | none  |
| Friday2:10-3:10                | Current Issues in South Dakota                                | DeVelder, Liz   | This session will explore the currentopportunities and challenges that audiologists,speech-language pathologists, and speech-language pathology assistants have in the state.Participants will have an opportunity to sharecurrent experiences, obstacles, and valuableinsights. A panel of individuals will be availableas a resource as participants work tobrainstorm resources and possible approaches   | Learners will be able to identify keyopportunities and challenges of audiologistsand speech language pathologists in the state.Learners will be able to identify resources forstated opportunities and challenges.Learners will be able to identify potentialapproaches to address current opportunitiesand challenges. | USD-SalarySDSLHA-registration | SDSLHA-professional   |
| Friday2:10-3:10                | Current Issues in South Dakota                                | Hoff, Danci     | This session will explore the currentopportunities and challenges that audiologists,speech-language pathologists, and speech-language pathology assistants have in the state.Participants will have an opportunity to sharecurrent experiences, obstacles, and valuableinsights. A panel of individuals will be availableas a resource as participants work tobrainstorm resources and possible approaches   | Learners will be able to identify keyopportunities and challenges of audiologistsand speech language pathologists in the state.Learners will be able to identify resources forstated opportunities and challenges.Learners will be able to identify potentialapproaches to address current opportunitiesand challenges. | SDSLHA-registration               | SDSLHA-professional   |

| Friday    | Current Issues in South Dakota | Schneider, Jess | This session will explore the current              | Learners will be able to identify key           | SDSLHA-registration | SDSLHA-professional |
|-----------|--------------------------------|-----------------|--|---|---------------------|---------------------|
| 2:10-3:10 |                                |                 | opportunities and challenges that audiologists,    | opportunities and challenges of audiologists    |                     |                     |
|           |                                |                 | speech-language pathologists, and speech-          | and speech language pathologists in the state.  |                     |                     |
|           |                                |                 | language pathology assistants have in the state.   | Learners will be able to identify resources for |                     |                     |
|           |                                |                 | Participants will have an opportunity to share     | stated opportunities and challenges.            |                     |                     |
|           |                                |                 | current experiences, obstacles, and valuable       | Learners will be able to identify potential     |                     |                     |
|           |                                |                 | insights. A panel of individuals will be available | approaches to address current opportunities     |                     |                     |
|           |                                |                 | as a resource as participants work to              | and challenges                                  |                     |                     |
|           |                                |                 | brainstorm resources and possible approaches       |   |                     |                     |
|           |                                |                 |  |   |                     |                     |
| 1         |                                |                 |  |   |                     |                     |